LIMITED WARRANTY

SAKURA FILTER warrants its products to be free from defects in material and workmanship during the recommended OEM or SAKURA service life of product. If SAKURA FILTER products are found to be defective, they will be replaced.

In the event of engine damage due to SAKURA FILTER product failure, the company will restore the engine to the condition equivalent to that existing just before failure.

In the event of failure caused by user or third party misuse, faulty installation, alteration, modification, accident, negligence, and/or incorrect application, this warranty will be considered null and void.

Any and all engine failures that occur solely due to SAKURA FILTER products must be inspected and certified by an expert from the automotive association or its equivalent authority.

If the engine failure or damage is suspected to be caused by SAKURA FILTER, the claimed filter must be returned to us as intact as possible, i.e., not altered, modified, or cut open, in order for us to investigate further so as to determine the root cause of the problem.

SAKURA FILTER is not liable for any other consequential losses or expenses incurred to such defect, or third party claim.

SAKURA FILTER reserves the right to change its product designs and its application range without prior notification.

All cross references in our catalog are based on the latest cross reference information available at time of printing. SAKURA FILTER cannot be held responsible for any errors or changes brought about by the Original Equipment Manufacturer's, and make no guarantee either expressed or implied as to its accuracy.
